Lucie Tiger -Everybody Knows Your Name

SHARE

Lucie Tiger has just celebrated a sixth single charting on USA country radio but she's not slowing down yet. "Everybody Knows Your Name" is the final single off her upcoming album, titled Greetings From Muscle Shoals. The single gets your attention from the very first note and quickly draws you into a tale of love-gone-wrong

The single has a "really cool, Charlie Daniels Devil Went Down to Georgia vibe" (Casey LeVasseur, 3 Ring Circus) and it's caught the attention of Lucie's TikTok fans who clearly identify with her posts about bad dating scenarios. As Lucie says, "It's not a good idea for guys to mess with a songwriter cause you'll wind up in their lyrics"

The "darling of country music" (The Music) Lucie Tiger has become the "reigning Queen of modern country rock" (Happy Magazine). Referred to as "the embodiment of a Southern-infused country rock singer-songwriter" (CountryTown), Lucie is known as an accomplished performer who "puts the fun in country rock" (Scenestr)

Written by Lucie Tiger, "Everybody Knows Your Name" features Lucie on acoustic guitar and vocals, Bob Wray (bass), Will McFarlane (electric guitar), and Justin Holder (percussion). Recorded in Muscle Shoals and produced by John Gifford III
